We believe our course to be the most effective to learn accounting for beginners. We make the following 4 Recommendations before starting:

- 1 Browse through the slides one by one in the presentation order without trying to understand everything on the first reading.
- 2 Forget everything you were told on Debit & Credit. We start everything from scratch with Left & Right entries plus the Green & Red Color code.
- 3 Give it a try with confidence. We use very simple words & concepts. This will enable you to post your first simple booking entries in the T1 test.
- 4 After the first reading, you are advised to take the 22 Simple T1 tests where you will find more explanations on how to post Booking Entries.

MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Photo Courtesy: fizkes/iStock Do you have stacks of old books sitting around your home that you don’t know what to do with? Instead of letting them collect dust, why not sell them online? If you’ve hesitated in the past to sell online because of the complicated listing process, it helps to know that things are much easier now and there are buyers out there interested in every title you can imagine. To sweeten the deal even more, there are many different websites where you can sell your old books. But not all of them are ideal for every type of book you might be interested in selling. It’s a wise idea to give your titles a higher chance of selling by listing them on the right marketplace. To get a better idea of your options, check out some of the best places to sell your books online, along with a few tips on how to get the most money for them. Selling Textbooks New textbooks for students cost a fortune. Unfortunately, purchasing or renting textbooks can be an expense some students have difficulty affording while in school. According to The Washington Post, 65% of students skip or delay buying or renting textbooks because the reading material is so expensive. If you have old textbooks lining your shelves, selling them not only means revenue for you but it also goes a long way in Students acquire the materials of the course they need. Below are some websites that can be used to sell online textbooks. AbeBooks an excellent place to start is AbeBooks, a huge market of used books online. AbeBooks is now working with Textbookrush.com to offer users a book-buyback service. The minimum buyback is $ 15.
