Even if you know your vehicle can maneuver at sharp angles, a speed limit sign, you should still slow down because:
 You must legally drive below the posted speed limit on sharp curves.
 The strong lateral pull on your vehicle can be dangerous.
 There may be a stalled vehicle or collision ahead that you can't see.

13. Who has the right-of-way at an intersection with no crosswalks?
 Pedestrians always have the right-of-way.
 Vehicles, but they should slow down and be careful.
 Pedestrians, but only with the green "WALK" signal.
 14. The middle of a two-way street is called the:
 Passing other vehicles, but it is not a crossing traffic.
 15. Make right turns when there is a two-way street:
 Begin or end left turns, or start a permitted U-turn.
 16. Use your vehicle's blind spots, you must look:
 Over your shoulders.
 In your side mirrors.
 17. In your inside rearview mirror.
 18. You are stopped at an intersection. The traffic light just turned green.
 You should go immediately?
 Yes, you are already in a vehicle or person still in the intersection.
 Yes, or you could be given a ticket for causing gridlock.
 No, you must first look for vehicles before proceeding.

If you already have a California DL, you can renew it in person in a DMV office, by mail or online. It's illegal to drive with a defeated DL and you can quote. There are no delay rates to renew a DL that has expired. Renove your DL online, you may be able to renew your DL online if you do not need to change your address or personal description. They are not requesting a DL or ID compatible with a real ID for the first time. They don't rename a commercial DL. If you are eligible, you can also register to vote when you renew online. To renew your DL in person: complete a DL or DL card application or bring the DMV renewal notice to send you your email (transmit any old information and type in the current information). Make your ThumbImrpnt scan a vision test. Take your picture taken. Pass the non-reimbursable application fee (application and valid fee for 12 months) . Pass the (s) proof of knowledge (if necessary). Your renewal notice will indicate if you need to take a knowledge test. You are allowed three attempts to pass each of the required knowledge tests. If the same test fails three times, your application is no longer valid and you need to apply again. To allow sufficient testing time, we do not manage knowledge tests within 30 minutes of closing. If you request real identification in person, you should also provide proof of your identity and residence of the list of acceptable real identification documents. After completing these requirements, DMV will issue you a temporary DL until you receive your new license by mail. Temporary leave is valid for 60 days. You will receive your new DL in the mail within 3 to 4 weeks. If you have not received your new DL "after 60 days, call DMV at 1-800-777-0133 to verify the state. You can be eligible to renew your DL by mail if you can answer NO to all these questions : Does your DL expire more120 days from today's date? Will you have 70 years (or more) when your current DL expires? (Not applicable after December 6, 2020, 2020, COVID-19 pandemic) Is it currently in any type of driving or suspension test? Have you violated a written promise to appear before the court in the last two years? Have you already received two consecutive five-year extensions by mail/internet? Do you have a DL of more than one state or jurisdiction? Are you requesting a DL/ID card that is compatible with the REAL ID for the first time? Are you asking to renew a commercial DL? If you qualify and have not received your mail renewal notice, complete a California driver's license renewal form by email (DL 410 FO). If eligible, you can also register to vote when renewed by mail. COVID-19 Effects on registration services In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, state-owned DMV's across the country have closed offices, extended licenses and registration expiration dates, and/or limit transactions that are processing. Residents are strongly encouraged to use the online DMV services. Follow recent DMV updates for the latest information.
