Some devices in El Vibrato locations let you learn the language, which is a simple word-based substitution for English words (and numbers).The language can be learned in-game in a few ways. Once a word is learned the text is automatically translated from that point on for you in game.The following table shows the full mapping. Note that this process only works for translating from English to El Vibrato, and that multiple English words can translate to the same El Vibrato word. This makes manually translating El Vibrato words in-game difficult/impossible. The Curious Abandoned Well is a location West of the Mountains, near the coast just South of Ghostwood. You can't access the bottom of the well without a length of rope, which can be found in various shops. At the bottom of the well is a Shockweed plant (requires Foragin 2), and an El Vibrato teleporter which sends you to an El Vibrato Chamber. This chamber, the hub, contains a return teleporter, as well as a terminal and an additional teleporter (rightmost) which can be controlled from the hub terminal to send you to a number of different El Vibrato places.Note that the terminal is not active unless you've fixed the "fusebox" machine in El Vibrato Ruin. If active the screen states the "current teleporter destination" (LACHO ANBUKRO GAPACHANO), and pressing the button tells you "destination updated" (GAPACHANO BECHA). Education Room (HOBUNO PUCHAZEVE)[By default the teleporter is set to the Education Room, where there is a machine that will teach you numbers in the El Vibrato language, from 0 to 6, as well as a terminal, which accepts punchcards to teach you various words in the vibrato dialect. To help with the latter, you can find 5 El Vibrato punchcards on a table.ButtonNumberName (El Vibrato)10Gamila21Slasta32Anan43Nichabu54Hotata65Anbekuz76PupuDrone Fabrication (GABE CHACHACHANO)[] The facility features a button box that can be pressed to summon some El Vibrato constructs that you can fight for XP. The first time you fight a single mystically-aligned construct. Subsequent fights add additional opponents, randomly selected from (a slightly different) mystical/healer, muscle, and moxie-aligned constructs, up to 6 foes at a time. If you have won 5 or more fights, the selection also includes slightly stronger variants. The XP rewarded is calculated oddly because the winning count is not updated until after the calculation. The first 2 combats will result in the same reward, just 30 - 32, combats 3-6 will result in 30 - 32 x (constructs-1), after 6 have been fought it will grow to 180 - 192.Equipment Fabrication (PACHOTA CHACHACHANO)[The facility features a terminal that allows you to fabricate El Vibrato rings and El Vibrato brooches, each requiring 5 El Vibrato scraps. You can also find an El Vibrato monolith here.Secondary Storage (KUZZLAZAK LAPU)[A room that contains two El Vibrato chests, each needing an El Vibrato keystone to open it, a pile of 4 - 6 El Vibrato scraps, and a table with a whining El Vibrato object on it. Auditory Nuisance Containment (NOKZAKPA SOMNICHA FUCHAFUSTA)[J]This facility contains an El Vibrato drone that makes a constant beeping sound, and a terminal that allows you "select nuisance destination" (BUGA SOMNICHA GAPACHANO). You can choose from 7 numerical options for south (STANOKPA), and 7 numerical options for east (NINOKTA).If you choose the wrong destination, the machine will declare "destination corruption detected" (GAPACHANO BUSTAAAN NOGACHA), and inform you of the relative difference so you can try again.The correct choice is 5 (ANBEKUZ) for south, and 3 (NICHABU) for east, which will transport it to The Jewel Saloon in Dirtwater where it will join the band.Note that since the numbers start at 0 these are the 6th and 4th buttons to press.Gallery[] The table with punchcards in the Education Facility The vending machine in the Equipment Fabrication area A pile of El Vibrato scraps The table holding the whining El Vibrato object The pedestal on which the beeping drone sits West of Loathing > Spoilery Discussions > Topic Details The power of El Vibrato? Ok, so I'm thinking something here. I think if someone discovered all the ways El Vibrato stuff works, one could get quite powerful. I just turned a stick of dynamite into a old stick of dynamite with double the damage. Now, that is late game, but all I know there may be a way with El Vibrato stuff to get it earlier. My point is, someone needs to figure out the best way to use this stuff and how early to do so. And (MAJOR SPOILERS) if you can funnel the last two terminals afe using them on the thing. West of Loathing > Spoilery Discussions > Topic Details El Vibrato Language So, as some of you may know in the Curious Abandoned Well, if you put a rope down, it leads you to an El Vibrato Portal which leads you to another El Vibrato portal which lets you learn some words and numbers of the El Vibrato's language. Now, is there any actual uses for learning the language? Note: This is ONLY to be used to report spam, advertising, and problematic (harassment, fighting, or rude) posts. This makes manually translating El Vibrato words in-game difficult/impossible. Sign in to edit The El Vibrato are a mysterious ancient race that left ruins throughout the land, and a number of alien bad guys too. The various El Vibrato items tend to be relatively powerful, and are worth acquiring, and using. Finding El Vibrato locations is predicated on first acquiring the El Vibrato transponder, given to you by the Perfessor. As you continue you will also want to acquire an El Vibrato rod to reveal otherwise invisible things, and eventually the key-shaped El Vibrato device will reveal still more, previously secret things. El Vibrato facilities contain terminals and signs written in the El Vibrato language. Your game character will be able to translate words as they learn them, and there are a couple machines that teach the language as well.QuestJ[]The full quest-line is as follows:In the Bizarre Ruin, accessed from Humming Cave, acquire the strange stone arrow. This unlocks the ability to find The Perfessor's House when wandering.Show the strange stone arrow to the Perfessor. He will convert it into an El Vibrato transponder, which you will need to find further El Vibrato things, and lets you encounter El Vibrato constructs while wandering too.In the Lost Dutch Oven Mine, you can gain access to an El Vibrato Chamber in which you can find an El Vibrato device. Show this to the Perfessor to unlock a machine in his cabin which lets you convert (10) El Vibrato scraps into an El Vibrato battery. The latter are useful for powering various El Vibrato devices you find later.Curious Abandoned Well has a number of El Vibrato things. Most important is a facility for learning the El Vibrato language, but you can also grind experience by fighting drones, acquire some items, and further the quest to find musicians for The Jewel Saloon band.From Curious Cope you can get to El Vibrato Construction Facility (Sublevel 19). Solving a puzzle here will reward you with the El Vibrato model bridge which can help get your train across the canyon.Curious False Mountain and Curious Flat Plain have the two power controllers for "Roberto Containment". Both of them have to be set appropriately.Various El Vibrato items can be acquired in the El Vibrato Chamber in Souptstock Lode, the El Vibrato Outpost in Madness Maw Mine, and the El Vibrato Storage Room in Abandoned Mine.A final step is to investigate Deepest Delve Mine and get to the El Vibrato Control Center. Here you can complete the "Roberto Containment" system, gaining an achievement, the El Vibrato Crown, and improving the ending. West of Loathing > Spoilery Discussions > Topic Details Band in Jewel Saloon 1 got 4 bandmembers by now but I am not sure if I am missing one because there seems to be one place left in the middle of the stage.I do have: -Cylinder guy with square shaped instrument -Guy with guitar -Beatboxing lady -El Vibrato floating machine Note: This is ONLY to be used to report spam, advertising, and problematic (harassment, fighting, or rude) posts.
