Nearby Pangea Apartments Southern Fried chicken was originally fried in a pan, not in a deep fryer. While Harold's probably uses a deep fryer, you would think it comes from an iron skillet. Gat half a chicken because the pieces are smaller than you are used to if...you go to KFC, etc. Reason is they are lightly breaded and not coated in batter. Also the flour is salted but not spiced heavily so it's more like fried chicken should be. $10.01 gets you two breasts and two wings, fries, slice of white bread, a little cup of slaw and if you don't pay extra for a special sauce you get a little cup of Harold's kicked up catsup. Fries are OK, wimpy and soft but good. Slaw is cabbage and mayo - that's about it. But the chicken is really good. It's fried up so crispy that you can eat the rib portion on the breast. The small wings are full wings including drum and flapper, not halves. They are small almost like at a Chinese buffet but really tasty. The place is bare bones - order at the window and take a number. Dump your tray at the end. Like fast food. But I'll give the chicken a true 10.More harolds chicken 127th halsted menu. harolds 127th and halsted menu. phone number to harold's chicken on 127th and halsted
