Now that season 1 is coming to a close (followed the week after the first of the section of his parent series of his fear, the dead deadening dead), it's time to start talking about fear that the dead who walks the Eason 2 and what fans can expect when the fan The Clark family returns to their television screens. Look at the dead man who was renovated for season 2 before the show has even invalidated his premiere of breakage of the record, as reported by the deadline, which showed how much faith AMC has in the series. Because of its nature of prequel, it will be able to go so long before recovering the beginning of the dead who walks, but since he is saying a different story in the same world, he can continue for his own path without being influenced by Events of the dead walking. There is no yet a release date set for season 2, but if you follow the example of season 2, the fear of the dead who probably walked the 2016 summer premiere, leading to probable (but not confirmed) Premiere of the dead season on foot 7. So what? Here is what you can wait from season 2 of the Fear The Walking Dead,over double the double episodeseason 2 of the fear that the dead walk will have a huge 15 episodes, making it the 150% larger than the season 1. In less than six episodes , the world as the Clarks knew that it has passed since normal, to be under complete military control and at risk of being consumed by ragnial cannibal corpses. If things continue to progress to this rhythm, the world of fear that the dead walking is in some grand-scale chaos by the end of the season 2. Clarms will still be at the center of it, fear that the dead walking is focused on As the world went apocalyptic and became the world from the dead walking, it is specifically connected to the evidence that Madison, Travis, Alicia and Nick face as they try to maneuver the apocalypse. The official description of the exhibition states that the fear of the dead on foot is "a gritty drama that explores the onset of the apocalypse does not die through the lens of a fractured family", so don't expect the show to get rid of this fractured family At any time soon. It will be influenced by flight 462Fear The Walking Dead: flight 462 debuts on October 4th on AMC.com, and will be broadcast during the commercial breaks of the season 6 of the dead on foot. The miniseries will follow the events on a flight in the air while passengers become aware of the zombie apocalypse in a very violent way. What is unique on this spinoff spinoff, is that one of the miniseries characters will become a new character about the season 2 of the TWD fear, according to weekly entertainment. If this flight occurs to bring great consequences, it could be the most important flight on television from ocean flight 815.The will worsen - much worse a lot the world of fear that the dead walking ended in the amount of time needed for Rick Grimes to wake up From a coma in the pilot of the dead walking. While the TWD fear continues, the Clark will begin to see the world becomes progressively more invaded by zombies, you will probably see a lot of death and will see the world as they know that falls apart before their eyes. The only thing that is 100 percent some of the events that occur during the fear The second season of the Dead Walking is that nothing is going better for anyone soon. Metages: Justina Mintz / AMC; Giphy (4) The group's plan to meet the dead man who walks has already been derailed - but at least Alicia and Morgan made a new friend and ally in the process. A about that research their own Adorn. She played from Karen David, who could remind you from shows like once once and Garavanti. Grace tells Morgan that he and his walking / fighting stick were contaminated ... but with what? Grace is holding the fort in a truck near a former nuclear plant that melted after the epidemic. She is bringing a huge quantity of guilt like the (apparently) survivor of the soul of the accident, and she spent his days trying to contain and dispose of her ancient colleagues of her. She is a depressing and dangerous job, but someone has to do it. "I couldn't take care of them then," she says. "So I take care of them now." Those who died are scored, and they must be carefully destroyed so that they do not contaminate any of the living. So it's fun. If the heroes of fear are not murdered by zombies or humans, they could get poisoning from radiation. At least grace she has a nice outdoor shower. Towards the center of the episode, Grace reveals that it has 63 ancient colleagues have been accounted for for Å ¢ Å,~ "Å ¢ and that number is definitely decreased since then. What will you do when your mission is complete? ¢ Å,~ "and dying, slowly, from its own radiation exposure. At least he is probably a good boy, relatively speaking in the dead universe on foot morally gray. While grace, like people who kidnapped Althea, wearing a mask, she was not involved. Which of the remaining and not see, did the scary people do this? They had very different masked clothes, not as the type that would normally find a nuclear power plant, but they can be aware that the area is contaminated. Actually it could be related to Commonwealth from dead comics on foot. Those soldiers wear masked helmets. Also, did you take the potential connection between those who took the fear and who took Rick Grimes in the original series? Since Grace is a regular series now, this is not the end of the story of her on the fear of the dead who walk. She is good for the show, since she has some survival skills differently from what the group met before, as well as for the character. Grace should not have to face her alone. There must be a way for others to help you, even if you ultimately condemned. Morgan and Alicia knew that the search for people who needed their help would have been hard work, but not hopeless. They will find their way to grace and they will be better for this. She continues with the last daily buzz with the daily Buzzfeed newsletter!
